Computer Support KnowledgeBases
from KnowledgeBroker, Inc.

SUPPORT SOLUTIONS

Provide your Help Desk Technicians and End Users an immediate and powerful resource for support. KnowledgeBroker licenses one of the largest proprietary KnowledgeBases of prepackaged content for Microsoft, Lotus and Corel/WordPerfect applications.

KBI's TotalBase is for businesses that need 'everything we have' to support new and legacy applications from the broadest range of vendors. Includes support for desktop and Internet applications, operating systems, hardware and more.

Save Time and Slash Costs

Increase first call resolution rates. Reduce costly escalation and customer call backs. Use the compact design of our solutions to cut Help Desk call times. KBI answers are short, concise and to the point. KBI solutions quickly answer the questions that people really ask.

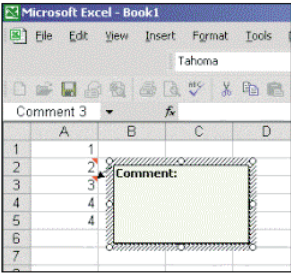

Increase Efficiency

Consistently fast, easy to understand, correct answers help increase call center productivity — analyst to analyst, shift to shift. Reduce costly agent training time by providing KBI's knowledge to new support techs.

EXCEL
INSERTING CELL COMMENTS

To insert cell comments in Excel 2002:

1. Click the cell where the comment is to be inserted.
2. From the Insert menu, click on Comment.

3. Type the comment to be embedded.
4. Click anywhere on the active worksheet to exit the comment box.

Increase the skill level of all your analysts by immediately filling gaps in their technical expertise. Eliminate expensive duplication of effort with a central resource of essential support knowledge.

Gain dramatic ROI. Reduce the total number of incoming calls to your Help Desk by providing your end users 24 x 7 self-help access to straight-forward problem solutions.

Results: Immediate Return on Investment

As support content specialists, we know that these proven business KnowledgeBases reduce expenses and increase call center performance. Review the benefits of our value-based productivity resources and decide for yourself.
